Dantzick, March 29. N. S.

THE Muſcovite Forces quarter'd in the Poliſh Pruſſia, having threaten'd to bombard this Place, in caſe they do not forthwith receive the Sum of five hundred thouſand Crowns, which they exact of us on ſeveral Pretences, our Magiſtrates have hereupon ſent to acquaint his Poliſh Majeſty with theſe Demands of the Muſcovites, and to deſire his Protection. The Report of the Defeat of a Body of Tartars commanded by the Cham in Perſon, has not yet been contradicted; but our Advices from Leopold ſeem to confirm it with the following Particulars. They tell us, that their Intentions were to deſtroy the Czar of Muſcovy's Ships at Veronitz; but that as they were approaching that Place, a Coſſack Deſerter diſcovered their Deſign to the Muſcovite General Commanding in thoſe Parts, who immediately aſſembled a conſiderable Body of Forces, and poſſeſs'd himſelf of an advantageous Poſt, from whence it was abſolutely neceſſary for the Tartars to diſlodge him before they cou'd proceed in the Execution of their Deſign, whereupon they attack'd him wich much Bravery; but were ſo well receiv'd, that they ſoon abandon'd the Attack, and fled, leaving great Numbers Dead on the Place, and many Priſoners behind them. Theſe Advices add, that the Cham of Tartary's Son and the Palatin of Kiovia were retir'd with great Precipitation from between Niemirow and Brecſlaw, and were in full March to join the Cham, who lay fifty Leagues from thence; and this Particular is thought to add to the Credit of the former Report of the Defeat of the Tartars near Veronitz. His Czariſh Majeſty propoſed to ſet out from Moſcow the 14th Inſtant for Kiovia; from whence he was to proceed to Leopold, where an Interview was intended between his Majeſty and the King of Poland, whoſe Affairs have detain'd him ſo long in Saxony, that it is thought that Deſign will be laid aſide for the preſent. Monſieur Wolcowitz, the Poliſh Ambaſſador, was on his Departure from Moſcow, without having been able to ſucceed in his Negotiations. Our Letters from thoſe Parts add, that the Governors of Archangel, Moſcow and Siberia having not furniſh'd the Recruits demanded by the time preſcrib'd, had been Impriſon'd; but were ſet at Liberty at the Interceſſion of their Friends, who undertook in their Name to furniſh his Czariſh Majeſty with very powerful Supplies.

Vienna, April 1. N. S. The Envoy of Modena has ſent an Expreſs into Italy with an Imperial Decree, directing the Count de Caſtelbarco to put the Duke of Modena in Poſſeſſion of the Dutchy of Mirandola, and the Marquiſate of Concordia. Our Advices from the Frontiers of Podolia import, that the Cham of Tartary's Son, and the Palatin of Kiovia, were entred into Poland with a Body of Troops conſiſting of Turks, Poles and Tartars, making in all about twenty five thouſand Men, and had already committed great Ravages. The Turkiſh Chiaux that came hither ſome time ſince from the Hague, is proceeded on his Journey to Conſtantinople, being attended by two Swediſh Gentlemen ſent by the Regency to wait on the King of Sweden at Bender.

Bruſſels, April 13. N. S. They write from Paris, that the Court is reſolv'd to be on the Defenſive in Alſace for the preſent, 'till they ſee what effect the Operations of the Campaign are like to have in Flanders. All the Officers at Court have receiv'd Orders to be ſetting forth towards their reſpective Commands by the 12th Inſtant. The Count de Medavi arriv'd at Briançon the 28th of the laſt Month, and having view'd the Fortifications and Magazines of that Place, he proceeded to Ambrun to forward the perfecting two new Forts they are building on an Eminence that Commands that City. As they are under ſome Apprehenſions of the Deſigns of the Allies on that ſide, the French are very buſy in throwing up Lines and Retrenchments, where they think them neceſſary for the Security and Defence of Dauphiné. Theſe Proceedings make it conjectur'd, that they will likewiſe act Defenſively in thoſe Parts; for which reaſon the principal Inhabitants are removing the moſt valuable of their Effects farther up into the Country, the better to ſecure them from the Irruptions of the Allies. The Convoy that was ſome time ſince forc'd into the Port of Cette by ſtreſs of Weather, is again ſail'd towards Roſes. The Duke of Anjou has appointed the Marquis de Canales to be General of the Spaniſh Artillery, in the room of the Marquis de Leganez, lately Deceaſed. That Prince has likewiſe publiſhed an Ordonnance, Prohibiting all Commerce with Holland, notwithſtanding the many Repreſentations that had been made, in order to prevent or ſuſpend that Prohibition.

Plimouth, April 13. Yeſterday ſailed her Majeſty's Ships the Leopard and Saphire, with the Joſeph and Neptune Tranſports to the Weſtward. Laſt Night ſailed the Eſſex, Kent, Plimouth and Aſſurance to Cruiſe.

Yarmouth, April 13. Yeſterday ſailed hence her Majeſty's Ship the Sheerneſs to the Southward. This Day paſſed through our Road a Fleet of laden Colliers from Newcaſtle to the Southward.

Whitehall, April 16. We have Letters from Oſtend importing, that they had receiv'd at Bruſſels the Confirmation of the Death of the Dauphin, who died the 14th Inſtant at Meudon, in the fiftieth Year of his Age. The Duke of Marlborough is ſet out from the Hague: He was expected on Saturday at Ghent, and propoſed to lie on Sunday at Tournay, ſo that he goes directly to the Army without paſſing through Bruſſels, as it was once thought he wou'd have done.

Whereas the Honourable the Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital near Chelſea, are directed (by the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council, and General Officers who are of the Privy-Council) to take a Review of the Invalid Out-Penſioners belonging to the ſaid Hoſpital, on the 25th of this Inſtant April; theſe are therefore to give Notice to all ſuch Perſons, on whom any Invalids belonging to the ſaid Hoſpital are or ſhall be Quarter'd, that they do not upon any account whatſoever pay or ſubſiſt them longer than to the 24th of this Inſtant April, until further Orders ſhall be given by the Treaſurer or Deputy-Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital.
